VACATIONS: CAN BE FUN OR GLUM

"....The skies are blue and the trees are green,
"And I long for a long vacation."

So wrote poet Edwin Meade Robinson. And the longing for a vacation .. though it's usually only two weeks "long" .. is one many persons will satisfy during summer months.

How safely they'll vacation depends on whether they take along a little common sense with the suntan lotion and the insect repellant, according to the National Safety Council.

If vacationers play safely, they'll probably send scads of "wish-you-were-here" cards home. If they don't, they'll probably do their writing propped up in a hospital bed.

Traveling, fishing, swimming, boating, cooking outdoors, or working around a house .. all can be hazardous, the Council said.

Vacationers can make merry their two weeks off—or they can make mishaps. "Have a good time," the Council said, but plan safety into your vacation by following these rules:

1. Check your car's brakes, lights and other mechanical features, and start your vacation on the right foot—which is a light foot on the gas pedal.

2. Slow down in bad weather, on bad roads, in heavy traffic, or if visibility is poor.

3. Don't swim alone, too far, or after dark. Know the water's depth.

4. Rest after eating. Take sun bathing a little at a time — better pale than parboiled.

5. Watch out for fish hooks.

6. Select boats carefully. Observe standard boat safetly rules— no standing, overloading or horseplay. Stay with your boat if it overturns.

"Vacations can be fun—or glum, depending on you," the Council said.

A REAL REMINDER

Des Moines, Iowa.- Here's a new twist in house decoration and a pretty good reminder to tnose who need it. A heart specialist has reported that one of his patients requested a sample length of his cardiograph — the zig-zag record of his heart action—and had it framed to be hung in his den as a reminder to lose weight.

SMART COP

Tampa, Fla.- Balked and baffled when motorists began erasing chalk marks she had placed on the tires of automobiles to help her check on overtime parking, policewoman Myrtle Elison began thinking. She came up with a new idea — using her lipstick, instead of chalk, to mark the tires.
